GEORGE HYRUM SWEAT
LAVINA CLUFF SWEAT
EMELINE MECHAM SWEAT

George Hyrum Sweat was born July 23, 1826 at Letter-Bee, Oxford County, Maine. His first wife was Lavina Cluff whom he married in 1846. She was born October 17, 1824, a daughter of David and Elizabeth Hall Cluff, and died April 1, 1910 in Heber. His second wife was Emeline Mecham whom he married in 1855. She died Nov. 5, 1898 in Heber. George Hyrum died May 16, 1897 in Heber. Lavina was the mother of ten children, three of whom lived to maturity. Emeline was the mother of 11 children, including John Henry, Louis, Joshua, Josiah, Rastus, Lydia Ann, Sarah Emeline, Charley, Brigham Albert, Joseph Wells and Lucy Margaret.

George Hyrum Sweat joined the LDS Church with his mother and father and settled in Nauvoo during the prime years of that city. He met his wife Lavina in Nauvoo and they were married there. At the time of their marriage she wrote of her betrothed: "Hyrum was so tall and handsome and brave and a fine dancer. He could jump the farthest, lift the heaviest weight, run the swiftest and he was admired by my brothers and all the young folks. He was honest, hardworking, always kind and affectionate."

Hyrum and Lavina had many opportunities to hear the Prophet Joseph Smith preach, and were also present when the Prophet was taken to Carthage Jail.

Leaving Nauvoo with the Saints, they traveled to Mt. Pisgah, Iowa, with the Cluff family, and from there drove an ox team to Utah. They settled first in Provo and here Hyrum took his second wife, Emeline. They later moved to Wasatch County and settled in Center Creek. Indian difficulties proved so hard for them in Center that they returned to Provo for 10 years, but then returned again to Center and took up homestead land. Hyrum was a good woodsman and worked as a shingle maker to earn a livelihood. He usually could produce a thousand shingles a day for which he received $5.50.

The families of the two wives lived in the same house in Center and they enjoyed deep love and respect for one another. Throughout their lives the families lived true to the gospel and bore strong testimonies of it.

As a girl, Lavina witnessed the building of the Kirtland and Nauvoo Temples of the Church and early in life became imbued with the spirit of the gospel. Shortly after her marriage she and Hyrum were driven from Nauvoo and they moved to Mt. Pisgah where her first child was born. They moved on to Council Bluffs where her second child was born. She was happy with her children, but they became ill and died. She made the trek on to Utah and settled in Provo where five more of her children were born. Because her life was filled with sadness through the loss of seven of her children, Lavina was thankful to have her husband's second wife and children close to add happiness to her life.

Her children included George H., born January 7, 1847 and died Sept. 18, 1851; Betsey A., born June 30, 1849 and died Sept. 18, 1851; Mary A., born Nov. 28, 1850, married William George Elliott, but died April 16, 1870; Minerva, born Dec. 11, 1853 and died June 20, 1855; Hyrum James, born June 17, 1855, married Rosella Lee and died Dec. 1, 1924; Samuel H. born Oct. 24, 1857 and died May of 1859; David born July 14, 1862 and died Nov. 20, 1869; Benjamin, born July 31, 1865 and died August 16, 1879; Lavina born March 3, 1866, married Daniel Edwin Bunnell and died Feb. 3, 1934; and Alfred, born July 11, 1868 and died Jan. 20, 1878.

Emeline Mecham Sweat was the daughter of Lewis and Lydia Wells Mecham, and drove a wagon across the plains because of the illness of her father. She settled in Provo with her family, where her father made barrels, tubs and churns and was also a weaver. It was in Provo that she met Hyrum Sweat and became his second wife.

CHARLES C. AND EMILINE SESSIONS THOMAS

Charles Carter Thomas was born September 16, 1839, son of Charles Thomas and Elizabeth Carter, and died January 21, 1919.

He married Emiline Sessions on December 25, 1960, at Heber. She was the daughter of Richard and Lucretia Haws Sessions and was born May 1, 1840, at Wayne County, Illinois. She died October 6, 1906.

Emeline Sessions Thomas was one of the oldest residents of Heber, having come here with her parents in 1859. She was among the very first to settle in this peaceful little valley, nestled among the hills of the lofty Wasatch mountains. She was then a maiden of 19 years.

The next year, on Christmas Day (Dec. 25, 1960), she was married to Charles C. Thomas by Thomas Rasband. This was the first wedding solemnized in this county.

She was born on May 1, 1940, in Wayne County, Illinois, crossing the plains in 1850 in James Pace's company, with her mother and seven brothers and sisters. Her father and brother, John and Bradford Sessions, were members of the Mormon Battalion, which on July 20, 1846, bade farewell to their families and friends at Mount Pisgah, to make that long tramp across the western desert to California.

Mr. Thomas came to Utah on September 9, 1852, in Bryant Jolley's company. He was a member of the Nauvoo Legion, and took part in the Echo Canyon trouble and was an Indian war veteran.
